BARS RECORDING OF BETS

GITTINS BILLS WILL NOT PERMIT RETURN TO NEW YORK CONDITIONS OF 1907.

Vital Factor in Bookmaking to Remain a Felony if Measures Now Under Consideration in Legislature at Albany Are Enacted Into Law.

New York, June 13.—Recording bets, or sheet writing, which is the vital factor in bookmaking, will remain a felony even if the Gittins measures now before the Legislature at Albany become laws. For that reason, it is pointed out by professional turf speculators, they will have little leeway. When the Hart-Agnew law went into effect the bookmakers' business received a knock-out blow because it became illegal to keep a record of betting transactions except in one's own mind. It was generally admitted that memory betting was limited in volume and that wholesale speculation with the public was physically and mentally impossible. From the moment Governor Hughes signed the Hart-Agnew measure the betting ring disappeared. Under the Percy-Gray law 300 bookmakers operated daily, handling cash and recording all wagers in elaborate fashion. But when the old law was erased from the statute books a revolution took place. The bookmakers, or layers, as they were called then, dwindled in number to less than thirty. The daily crowds of 20,000 and 40,000 on Saturdays and holidays fell off to 2,500 and 5,000 respectively. No cash betting was permitted, speculation being confined to the oral credit system, which from the layers' point of view was anything but satisfactory. The increased fee for admission, coupled with reduced stakes and purses, however, enabled the various racing associations to nearly break even financially and encouraged them to keep the sport alive purely out of sentiment. Those conditions prevailed when the Agnew-Perkins measures were passed last year.

Then came the closing of the gates because the racing directors did not care to be held criminally liable for betting that might take place on the tracks without their knowledge or consent. The bookmaking with or without writing law also made it dangerous for two friends to wager in private on the result of a race.

In describing the future of racing if the Gittins measures are passed a member of the Legislature said yesterday: "It is unfair to say that the Gittins bills mean open gambling on a big scale and that the former conditions that prevailed under the Percy-Gray law will come back. The Gittins bills simply relieve the owners of criminal liability. It is unfair to hold them responsible for betting of which they know nothing and cannot prevent. They should be allowed to conduct their race meetings without fear of arrest, inasmuch as racing is legalized and protected by the State Racing Commission appointed by the Governor. There is no written law against betting and there is a wide difference between betting and bookmaking. The Gittins bills define the term 'bookmaking without writing' in such a way that individuals can bet privately. That is all. There is no attempt to wipe out the law making the recording of wagers a felony, which is the most important feature of the Hughes legislation. "The bills pass the public in general will be unable to bet, and the crowds at the tracks will be limited to those who can afford to be there. Enemies of racing do not speak truthfully when they assert that the proposed legislation will restore the objectionable features of 1907. The bills simply provide for a small scale and make it possible to keep the turf barely alive."

The State and County fair associations have made it clear that they favor the passage of the Gittins bills as much as the racing associations under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club. The professional layers have displayed little enthusiasm so far. Several of them who attended the United Hunt's races last Saturday declared that so long as they were prevented from keeping written memoranda of betting transactions their business never would amount to anything.

Albany, N. Y., June 13.—The Gittins bills, which are now on the Senate calendar, probably will come up for third reading tomorrow. The feeling among the leaders of the Senate is that they will pass. The leaders say they receive three letters favoring them to one in opposition. They have not been introduced in the Assembly. The procedure will be, if they pass the Senate, to have them sent at once to the Assembly.

GOOD MATERIAL FOR BROOKLINE MEETING.

Boston, Mass., June 13.—Preparations that are going forward for the three days of racing at Clyde Park under the auspices of the Country Club, Brookline, suggest that it will be the most notable sport ever offered by the club. The meeting will begin on Saturday next and already there are numerous horses on hand preparing for the races, while many others are due from New York.

The finishing touches have been put on both the steeplechase course and the main track. There is an incentive to make the forthcoming meeting a red letter one, inasmuch as it gives horsemen the chance to pay tribute to the memory of the late Robert C. Hooper, one of the most notable figures in American steeplechasing. He raced his horses under the name of "Mr. Chamberlain," and that is the name of the memorial steeplechase, one of the most important events of the program and for which there are thirty-two entries, including the best jumpers in the land.

The Country Club steeplechase course is one of the best in the world and an exceedingly difficult one for the horses. In the thirty years of these meetings the club's courses have altered and so have the animals that cross them. Hunters are still some of the best in the country, but one hears their owners exclaiming: "I had no sort of a chance, you know; mine was only a fox catcher." This term as applied to the steeplechase horse is one of deprecation; the fox catcher has not the speed requisite for the winning of the "chases," nor does he jump in the style of the well-schooled steeplechaser. The hunter of a few years back dwells at his fences; he has to be steady, his leap is a special effort and he pauses when he lands. The "chaser" must fly his fences and "get away from them" without dwelling. The animals do their work in different ways; the "chaser," indeed, is quite a modern product.

It is not in the hunting field that the recruits are sought. Hunters have not the speed to live with the rivals they are certain to meet in important races. An odd fact about steeplechasing is that often horses which have not been able to stay for five furlongs on the flat can win races of several miles across country. A really satisfactory explanation of

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES

Governor Gray's success in the Latonia Derby had the effect of moving him up into the leadership of the winning horses of the present year. It also made him the first and only horse of the year credited with having won $10,000 or more. As a feature of contrast it is only a matter of five years back when at this time of the year a dozen or more horses had won more than that sum of money. Next to Governor Gray is another three-year-old, The Nigger, in fact, with one exception, the first seven in the list are three-year-olds. The exception is the good Texas five-year-old mare, Meadow, which holds third place by virtue of having won $7,345. The accounts of the thirty best money winners to date are as follows:

this has still to be found, though that their fine speed enables them without exertion to hold their own with animals of less speed may tend to elucidate the mystery.

Hunters now are really steeplechasers, for the old galloping method will not do even to catch foxes if there are any of these fellows that race in the field. These race meetings have developed a new type of hunter and a superior horse to the old timer, which was only asked to gallop along stoutly and take his fences without accident.

The Country Club racing has always attracted a wonderfully good lot of horses, but this season the nominations are better in quality than ever before. The sport will be varied with flat races and there will be army cups for horses in the service, as has been the rule at all recent hunt meetings. With the breaking down of Metaphor, during home's recent race at Belmont Park, Terminal course of the United Hunt's Racing Association, a new champion will have to be found, and new interest attaches to these contests through the misfortune that has befallen the brother to Maskette.

New York, June 13.—A special train left Belmont Park yesterday for Brookline, Mass., made up of four cars carrying the horses handled by Silas Veitch, C. F. Clark, Tim Donohue, William Henry, Adolph Wheeler and the horses owned by the United States Government and military officers. In the latter division are Lieut. C. R. Rockwell's Matabon and Great Khan; Lieut. E. St. John Greble's Virginia and St. Angelo; Capt. George T. Lane's home's Rosemont; Capt. R. G. Paxton's Colored Lady; Lieut. W. J. Scott's May Lee; Capt. Frank Halshead's Hal Day; Lieut. L. C. Kerners' Atha; Capt. Guy Cushman's Marmion and Capt. A. C. Gillen's Emma Holle.

The government's horses are Knight of Elway, winner of the Remount Cup Steeplechase on May 1st last; and Tambo, Delany, Toney Lass and Timberloss. All are eligible to several events at the Massachusetts course.

Silas Veitch's string comprises Mr. Archdale's Kissing Cup, Supplement, Gold Plate and Far West; Harry H. Vint's Waterspeed; Mrs. Payne Whitney's Web, Captain F. Anson's Clark, Frank, Hyde and Battier and Frederic Bull's Magnolia.

C. F. Clark will take Allan Pinkerton's Booger Red and a half dozen cross-country horses.

William Henry's charges are Carmen, Alice Carnal, Royal Vane and Silver Ball, the property of Richard Mortimer, Jr., and Henry Frothingham.

Adolph Wheeler will have Harry Bumpo, Stripling and others for Harry W. Smith.

The horses racing under the colors of Leonce Fuller and Lathrop Brown will be shipped from Pineledge track to Brookline. Mr. Brown purchased Planter from William Walker a short time ago.

Metaphor, which has the distinction of being the crack racer in military events, has been shipped to the Remount track at Washington, D. C., following a breakdown at the recent Belmont Park Terminal races.

HOW SUNSTAR WON THE DERBY.

"Mr. Manning found the fifty-five minutes' interval ample in which to conduct in weighing-out duties and there was no single hitch in the saddling operations, despite the way the majority of the fancied candidates were mobbed. The American, Adam Bede, was one of the first mounted, though Butters' pair were on his heels. The twenty-six runners were marshalled in the order of the card, and so they paraded, the preliminary center being carried out before a vast and critical crowd, when it was noticed that nothing moved with more elegance of motion than King William, Sunstar, Eton Boy and Phryxus. Those to go down a trifle short were Royal Tender, Adam Bede and Kel O'Or, the latter of which was outclassed from every view. Then came a somewhat tedious delay at the post, the delinquents being Sydmon, All Gold, Phryxus and Alan Melton.

"Each appeared to have his head straight and to be in line for the jump off when Mr. Willoughby pulled the lever, but Stedfast seemed to throw up his head and dived, losing some half a dozen lengths, and Sobieski, Atmah and Mazd did not move off with the same dispatch as the others. The first trio to show in the leading rank were Bachelor's Hope, All Gold and Longboat, but scarcely a furlong had been traversed before Bannockburn settled down with a two-lengths lead of All Gold, Chelys colt, Eton Boy and Phryxus. Those to go down a trifle short were Royal Tender, Adam Bede and Kel O'Or, the latter of which was outclassed from every view. Then came a somewhat tedious delay at the post, the delinquents being Sydmon, All Gold, Phryxus and Alan Melton.

"King William dropped right out of it going through the Fuzzes, and it was soon afterwards that Stern woke Sunstar up. One light flick of the whip sent the favorite up into a more prominent position, and half way down the descent to Tattenham Corner Sunstar had become the nearest attendant upon Bannockburn, who piloted his field till well in the straight, Phryxus being a handy third, in front of Cellini and Royal Tender, Stedfast now passing beaten horses in quick succession, while the only others now in the contest with the least hope of success were Sydmon, Eton Boy and Bachelor's Hope, and even their prospects were forlorn.

Hunter entering the line for home Bannockburn held out signals of distress and Sunstar, drawing up on the rails, took up the running a trifle more than a furlong in the straight. A quarter of a mile from home Royal Tender drew up to have a cut at the favorite, Phryxus, running a hopeless race, heading the improving Stedfast and Cellini.

"Just below the bell Sunstar appeared to falter just for a stride, and then Stedfast dashed up to his quarters; but Sunstar rallied and, getting into his stride again, put daylight between himself and his rival, and won in gallant fashion by two lengths; Royal Tender, four lengths away, was third.

"Then, after an even bigger gap, came Phryxus, which was officially placed fourth, Eton Boy fifth, Cellini (close up) sixth, Bannockburn (led over a mile) seventh, Bachelor's Hope eighth, Sydmon ninth, Atmah (slow off) tenth, Helicon (outpaced) eleventh, Duke of Lancaster twelfth, Adam Bede thirteenth, Sobieski fourteenth, Zorral fifteenth, Chelys sixteenth, Mazd seventeenth, King William eighteenth, Longboat nineteenth, Pietri twentieth, All Gold twenty-first, Nornint twenty-second, Ath Melton twenty-third, Royal Beagle twenty-fourth and Kel O'Or, coming in some time after the others, last. Time, 2 minutes, 36 seconds.

"The public, who love a good horse, loudly applauded the victory of the favorite, which was otherwise received with little enthusiasm. Mr. Joel led the winner into the paddock, the crowd trying to pluck mementoes from his mane and tail, and right glad must Stern have been when, amidst hearty congratulations, he dismounted at the weighing-room door.

"Thus has the question of superiority been rammed home, Sunstar having won his three races in emphatic style and with Sunbright as another example there can be no doubt as to the stock of Sun-dridge staying. Mr. J. B. Joel has now won all the classics except the One Thousand Guineas.—London Sporting Life.

HAMILTON DERBY A PROMISING RACE.

Hamilton, Ont., June 13.—The racing scene in Canada drifts this week to Hamilton, where the spring meetings of the Hamilton Jockey Club will open next Saturday. Much interest is centered in the running of the Derby, the feature of the opening day, and this year it promises to furnish the greatest contest in the history of the race. Among those that are being pointed for the event are S. C. Hildreth's Novelty and Zeus, August Belmont's Whist and Trap Rock, R. T. Wilson's Nausheen, R. F. Carman's Meridian, James Rowe's Lahore, T. R. Condran's The Nigger and J. W. Schorr's Edna. In all probability there will be about ten starters, but those named are an attraction in themselves, and such an array of thoroughbred talent may not again be seen together this season.

Every stall is taken at Hamilton and many horses are quarantined on the outside. While the jumping races so far this season have produced small fields, Hamilton will likely prove the exception as there are quite a large number of jumpers on hand, a number coming up from the recent hunt meeting at Baltimore and, as usual, the races through the field promise to be one of the features of the meeting.

FINE SIGHTS AND RACING AT ROYAL ASCOT.

London, Eng., June 13.—The Ascot meeting began today with great splendor, the royal procession in which King George V. and Queen Mary rode in state, being cheered by great crowds along its route of progress. The attendance of titled and fashionable people was enormous.

The Ascot Stakes of $100 each with $10,000 added, for three-year-olds and over at two miles, was won by C. E. Howard's four-year-old brown colt Will-o'-the-wisp, with Mr. Fairlie's four-year-old chestnut colt, King Midas, second and A. Stedall's five-year-old bay horse, Victory, third.

The Prince of Wales Stakes of $250 each with $5,000 added, for three-year-olds at mile and five-eighths, was won by Lord Derby's chestnut colt, Stedfast, by Chaucer—Be Sure, with H. P. Whitney's chestnut colt, All Gold, by Persimmon—Dame O'Or, second, and Sir R. Walde Griffith's bay colt, Helicon, by Cyllene—Vain Duchess, third.

LAGOON TRACK A FAST COURSE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 13.—The beginning of the third week of the Lagoon meeting was made notable by the lowering of two track records, which demonstrated that the track is rapidly getting into such condition that it will soon rank as one of the fastest in the west. An allowance race over the futurity course was the special attraction of the afternoon and witnessed the defeat of the Bedwell crack, Myles O'Connell, which was held at prohibitive odds. The winner turned up in Spohn, well ridden by Mentry, which was always within striking distance, when called upon galloped past the leader to win in the fast time of 1:08 1/2, which lowered the track record three-fifths of a second. Acumen, winner of the third race, also clipped two-fifths of a second from the mile record.

Billy Myer, winner of the last race, was one of the most heavily backed winners of the meeting.

LEAMENCE WINS HANDICAP

BEATS COUNTLESS IN OVERNIGHT FEATURE OF LATONIA CARD.

Rider of Latter Horse Defers His Final Move Too Long to Overcome Victor's Lead—Colston

Victor in a Close Finish.

Cincinnati, O., June 13.—Delightful weather and the prospects of witnessing good sport contributed to attracting another banner crowd to the Latonia track today. Keen racing, in most instances terminating in close finishes, after stirring stretch struggles, was their reward. The betting was again sharp and more voluminous than expected after yesterday's disastrous experience by the big plungers. The public began proceedings this afternoon auspiciously, but later on their choices failed in exasperating fashion by narrow margins.

The principal disappointment came with the running of the handicap, at a mile and seventy yards, participated in by a sextet of good horses, and in which Fauntleroy, Countess, Ozana and Carlton G. absorbed nearly all the speculative attention in the order named. Leamence, a dispossessed outsider, ran a sparkling race and took the purse after a long drive with Countess. The last named was probably best, but Kennedy indulged him too long and, though gaining rapidly near the end, he failed to overhaul Leamence, which had stolen a winning lead on the stretch turn. Polls ran in a manner which probably forecasts his return to good form. He finished with a rush and took third money.

The race preceding the handicap furnished a thrilling finish between Colston, Hazel Burke and Bettie Sue. Colston was excellently handled by J. Conley. Under a better-judged ride Hazel Burke would have beaten the winner handily.

Jockey Glass distinguished himself in the closing dash by taking a desperate chance to squeeze through a small opening in the last seventy yards and his daring enabled John Louis to beat Fort Johnson.

John W. Schorr's Bayerin scored a fluky victory in the third race, for, had Golden Agnes not bolted in the last sixteenth, the McMannus filly would have won easily. The Hague, favorite in this race, failed to land in the money because she was effectively blocked by the tiring Redlass during the final furlong. Mack B. Eubanks graduated from the maiden class with an impressive victory in the opening race. Booby, in the second race, enabled E. R. Bradley to win his first purse in a long time.

All this afternoon went to horses owned or controlled by horsemen from nearby points.

Capt. J. T. Williams made arrangements tonight to transfer the Latonia Derby winner, Governor Gray, to Hamilton, Ont., to start in the Derby which will be decided there on Saturday next. After his start in the Hamilton fixture, he will be returned here to fill several late engagements before being transferred to Fort Erie, where he will be a starter in the Canadian Derby. Jockey T. Rice has been engaged to pilot Governor Gray. James S. Everman, his trainer, will go with the colt and return with him immediately after filling the Hamilton engagements.

Captain Williams this afternoon took occasion to deny the rumor that he had been made a big offer for the son of Garry Hermann and Salama. "I have not had an offer for him and do not know of anyone anxious to buy him. I hardly think Mrs. Williams would care to sell and as she has given me full control of the colt, I say adversely to the offer for the present would tempt me to sell the colt," was his comment.

Jockey Taplin was fined $50 by the judges for striking jockey Glass with his whip during the stretch drive in the fifth race.

Harry Breitvogel, the chief accountant here, is reported to be in bad condition. He is threatened with typhoid fever. General Manager John Hachmeister is also under the weather. Dr. Leach, the paddock and patrol judge, was again forced to absent himself from duty today because of illness.

E. W. Heffner has changed his plans for turning out Guy Fisher and is giving him light training. Jockey Goose, who cancelled all his engagements for this afternoon on account of an injury to his foot, sustained while riding Ethel Samson yesterday, when he was forced into the fence.

W. H. Karkick arrived today from Louisville with the remainder of the Knapp-Hitchcock-Widener horses. There were nineteen in the consignment. Henderson & Hogan acquired Camella this morning for the reported price of $1,000.

King Solomon pulled up lame after the finish of the last race. He might have won but for the mishap, which took place a sixteenth out when he was in a commanding lead.

T. W. Flynn will ship his string to Chicago to engage in the two days meeting at Hawthorne. Henry McDaniel stated today that Amos is going along satisfactorily in his training and that he may be a starter during the latter part of the meeting. John T. Ireland has again put Cherryola in training and expects to have her in racing condition before the close of the meeting.

Ernest Cottrell is here trying to interest horsemen in shipping their horses to Fairmont, W. Va., for a four days meeting which will be held there June 21 to 25.

Among this morning's work-outs were the following:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Judge W. H. Shelley, who has been in the harness continuously since last fall as an official at Juarez, Lexington and Churchill Downs, is enjoying a well earned rest at his Louisville home.The summer meeting of the Oklahoma City Jockey Club opened auspiciously at Oklahoma City yesterday and will continue until and including July 4.
E. C. Smith is presiding over the meeting.The first entry received for the stakes of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association was from J. H. Munson of Butte, Mont., who nominated Lady Adele for the $1,000 Inauguration Selling Stakes.The sale of William Walker's horses at Blue Bon-nets last Saturday was not a success. Tee May was the only one let at the price offered. She was taken for $100 by J. Cannon, a Montreal man, who will race her at the half mile track when she is not pulling a cab.George Cadwallader, who rode in races over forty-five years ago and trained such noted horses as Pompey Payne and Mollie Cad, has charge of the entrance to the offices of the betting pavilion at Latonia. Minnie English was about the last good winner that he trained and raced.T. C. Melbowell thinks so well of his unbeaten two-year-old colt, The Manager, that when approached recently and asked to put a price on him, he is credited with replying: "If I sell The Manager, it would be just as well for me to quit racing, so the colt is not for sale."Edward Jasper, who served as racing secretary at Juarez and Louisville, is one of the cashiers in the pari-mutuel department at Latonia. Others employed

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. X. D., Miamisburg, O. The sum due you from the show paper was $2.45.J. W., Buffalo, N. Y. Neither of the horses you named was raced June 5, but on June 6 Ocean Bound was scratched from the fourth race at Louisville and Bonnie Kelso ran unplaced in the third race at Montreal, his place price being 2 to 1.E. R. T., Chicago. The fastest run American Derby were the 1903 and 1904. The Pickett winning in 2:33 in 1903 and Highball in the same time in 1904. The best American Derby time previous to The Pickett's victory was Robert Waddell's 2:33 in 1901.F. W. T., Pittsburg, Pa. There was nothing peculiar in the case of the field in that race that made it in any way different from any other mutual field, except that the horses were grouped or bunched as a field because of being trained by the same man. Bets on the unplaced horses lost.
